

Character name: Howard

About your character:

Howard dreams of being a hero, and he loves cosplaying the legendary hero- Harold who once saved the world. But since the world is at peace, he has no motivation to go on a journey, do trainings, or even exercise. (LOOK at his BELLY!!!) Btw, his favorite snack is chocolate bar.

He still wants to be a "Hero" but what he does every day is to eat chocolate cakes and chocolate cookies, then sleep.

He has been feeling empty recently because what he seeks is getting further away from what he is right now. Maybe he can find his own way of life one day... when his story truly begins.

Skills (if any): I think he can cook food for himself.

※ Harold is a main character from RPG Maker MV.
